Backup PINsafe How to Guide

Contents

- 1 Overview
- 2 Prerequisites
- 3 Backup Guides
- 4 Testing
- 5 Known Issues
- 6 Troubleshooting

Overview

PINsafe should be regularly backed up to ensure that configuration information and user data are secure, the following areas of information need to be backed up:

- User Data
- PINsafe Configuration
- Custom modifications including, transports, IP filters, Single Channel Images

Additionally Swivel virtual or hardware appliances include OS information.

Also see the Appliance Backup FAQ.

Prerequisites

PINsafe 3.x

Backup Guides

The following guides are available for backing up PINsafe

Backup Appliance using CMI

Backup PINsafe on a Active/Active appliance using CMI

Backup PINsafe on a Software Only Install

Backup PINsafe on a Active/Passive appliance using command line

Testing

Known Issues

Troubleshooting