OnetouchCertificates

Push Certificates

In order for your core platform to be able to send push alerts to your user's mobile devices it must present a trusted certificate with the request.

These certificates are entered on the Transport->PNA page.

These values may change from time to. Swivel will advise you of any changes and you can cut and paste new values into this screen.

Regards

Chris